Welcome Lynn

The administration team is excited to welcome our new Administrative Assistant, Lynn Hoch. She comes to us with strong organizational skills, people skills, and computer skills. She will be in the office mornings on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday so you can stop in or call and ask questions. Kim and Raechel are busily showing Lynn the intricacies of the job. Lynn will be responding to email sent to office@rclpc.org and lynnh@rclpc.org. Lynn likes to bake so she will be bringing cookies to the cookie walk and calories to the staff.

Worship

Don't forget to place your Poinsettia Order by December 7th. Flowers will adorn the sanctuary on Christmas Eve and may be taken home at the conclusion of the last service. Forms may be found at the end of the newsletter or in the Gathering Space. Deadline to order: 12/7

Join our Illumination Team and Help Us Light the Night

We need help to light the streets of Ridgefield on Christmas Eve. You have three ways to be part of this exciting new team. 1. Sign up to set the luminaries out at 10am on Christmas Eve 2. Light the candles (ok, turn on the candles) at 4:00pm 3. Collect the bags after the 7:30 pm worship service. This tradition is well loved by our neighbors and worshipers on Christmas Eve but in order to keep it going we need a few more hands. To volunteer please contact Raechel Sowa or sign up in the Gathering Space.

Faith Formation

Multigenerational Faith Formation Sundays in Advent following Worship

We will explore the text each week by preparing an item to add to your home as a reminder of the season. Don't rush off to the next event, go home or run to the grocery store. Give yourself a chance to be present in Advent.

This Week in Fellowship Hall:

- Post a Note about what brings you hope
- Participate in our Christmas Card Challenge
- Share stories with others during our Scrapbook Wreath making activity
- Fellowship with Friends

Mid Week Advent Reflection

Come join us for some Advent reflection time on Wednesdays starting November 30. We'll begin at 5:45 pm with a simple soup supper (about 20 minutes) and then open with prayer and listen to a biblical text for the coming Advent Sunday. After hearing the texts, we'll write down our reactions to the texts, and share them if we feel moved to share. Then we'll move on to the second text. The goal is to provide a simple discussion tool that all can embrace—youth, young adults, long-time and new members too. We may refer to Richard Rohr's book, Preparing for Christmas, but it's not necessary to have the book unless you're looking for more: it provides daily meditations for the Advent season.

Let us know you are coming so we have enough soup! Class will end in time for choir
Deb Bendis and Raechel Sowa

RCLPC Joy Angel Tree

YES, the RCLPC Joy Angel Tree LIVES and needs YOU to be an Angel!

Our Mission Agencies always have many needs for their clients and YOU can add a SPARKLE to someone who needs it this Christmas. This year we will be doing our Giving Tree “Different but the Same” ☺

Here’s what you do:

- After scanning, it will take you to a form for you to:
 - Type in your name and email address
 - Choose the gifts you plan to purchase
 - Hit the Submit button and you’re all set!

The list will be

- You will find that many of the gifts this year are once again Gift Cards empowering people by giving them the privilege to shop and pick out gifts
 Please Note: Buy the gift cards yourself and when dropping off the gift cards there will be a wrapped gift box in the office for you to put them in. Please have them in an envelope with your name and who it’s for on the envelope before dropping it in the box
- For the Pioneer Center their clients make out an extensive “wish list”. If you choose to sign up for this click on the box and Joan will send you their wish list and you may shop and choose the gifts you’d like to give this person. You will be the only one shopping for them. Please wrap these gifts.

Please return the gifts to the church by Sunday December 11.

If you have any questions OR need help purchasing or delivering your gift to the church feel free to contact Joan Jensema and we’ll figure out a way:

- email jenpeel35@att.net
- call 815-307-5220

ALSO - Feel free to pass along the information to anyone you know that may be looking for a way to give to others this Christmas.

Calling All Bakers to Create Festive Cookies for RCLPC's 30th Annual Cookie Walk

RCLPC's longest running tradition is Saturday December 10, 9am-11-am!

It's festive, it's fun, it's a great way to connect with our community AND it raises money for great causes. This year the proceeds will be divided up between NAMI (National Alliance of Mental Illness) and RCLPC.

So how can you be part of the fun and help out with this event? BAKE, BAKE, BAKE!!!! We need LOTS of festive Christmas cookies, fudge and goodies to make this day a successful one. There are so many ways to do this:

- Bake ahead of time and freeze cookies
- Bake with friends!
- Bake with kids and grandkids
- Be creative and help with a great cause
- People are needed Friday, December 10 to decorate Fellowship Hall, be there to receive the cookies and creatively display them
- People are needed the day of the Cookie walk to help greet and assist our guests, weigh cookies, re-stock tables and join in on the fun of the day!

More details to follow as we get closer to the event! Please look for the sign-up sheets above the name tags or by contacting Vicki or Anne Marie at: vbrown62@sbcglobal.net 847-877-1201 We're counting on YOU to have enough cookies to make this our 30th successful Cookie Walk!!!

Fellowship

Cantata Brunch

Please join us after church on 11-Dec for a Fellowship brunch, celebrating the beautiful music performed in the Cantata. This was a big event last year - you won't want to miss it! Based on the size of the event, the Fellowship team is in need of some assistance, specifically in providing some of the food - bakery/baked goods, breakfast casseroles, fruit, and mini-bagels, and with clean-up afterwards. There will be a sign-up located in the Gathering Place or please contact Laurie Jensen, (815) 307-6644 or Julia Baser (224) 629-3191 for more information. Thank you! We are looking forward to another fun event!

Jesus' Birthday Party December 18 from 4:00-7:00 pm

It's back.....the party to beat all parties. Put on your pj's and fuzzy slippers and come have breakfast for dinner, watch movies, play games, and make all sorts of crafts to celebrate the birth of Christ. Parents, this is your chance for three hours of shopping, eating, relaxing, wrapping, celebrating, etc. etc. before the big day. Invite your friends, grandkids, cousins, nieces and nephews to the don't miss event of the season. Let's fill the church with laughter and fun to kick off winter break. What to get the guy that has everything? How about a pack or two of diapers to support the Diaper Bank. Don't delay, sign up here or in the Gathering Space.

Christmas Card Challenge

Each week during Advent you will be given the opportunity to think about different people in your life and to send them a Christmas card. Think about the prompts for each week, pray for that person, and send them a card.

Week 1: A person that has had an impact on you. Maybe that person is a family member, friend, favorite teacher, mentor or personal hero.

Week 2: Think about someone that helped you say "yes" to something big or encouraged you to take a chance on something that scared you?

Week 3: Someone in your life that helped you make a big decision.

Week 4: Who bears the Christ-light for you?
